

Hallelujah For Every Broken Heart

Crowder

There is a grace in the rise and fall
There is return for everything we've lost
There will be moments when the beauty's gone
There is a power when we've lost it all

There is a place where redemption cries
There is a death that can save a life
There's resurrection where there was a cross
There is power when we've lost it all
There is a power when we've lost it all

Hallelujah for a broken heart
Hallelujah when I'm falling apart
There's a sun rising when the sky is dark
I'm singing, hallelujah for a broken heart
Hallelujah for a broken heart

Don't be afraid of every crooked turn
What sorrow plants in the graves and dirt
Jesus uses all the pain and hurt
There is power in the way He works
Oh there is power in the way He works

Hallelujah for a broken heart
Hallelujah when I'm falling apart
There's a sun rising when the sky is dark
I'm singing, hallelujah for a broken heart
Hallelujah for a broken heart

Why should I worry
Why should I fear
Every heartbreak
Is drawing me near
I need You more now
Than I ever did
I'm thanking You Jesus
I'm thanking You Jesus

Hallelujah for a broken heart
Hallelujah when I'm falling apart
There's a sun rising when the sky is dark
I'm singing, hallelujah for a broken heart

I'm singing, hallelujah for a broken heart
I'm singing, hallelujah I can trust You God
I'm singing, hallelujah for every broken heart
