

Deciphering

Crown Magnetar

Bleeding from my eyes I'm laid to rest within this ground
Worthless and pathetic I pray to the God of death
Laying in a heap as I take my last breath

And when I'm through all life it will be severed
And when I'm through my hate will live forever

The writhing sounds that scorn my life will never
And when it hits your world will all be severed
That drops you down into a world of hate
Your life is fake
You'll never be remembered

Lifeless and entombed in abysmal suffering
Roaming their planet erasing the putrid creations

Burning at the gates as I seize
Not an ounce of mercy, no gods, no pleads

I will insight the fear of all the ages
No matter how hard I try nothing changes You'll be a sadistic shit, just lying and prying in your own sp
it

This is my resting place beneath the roots of earth
Assimilation with this grave, I shall remain forever

Begging for forgiveness, but I know I'll never see it in your e yes
Buried in the dirt
I am the lord despised
Useless waste meant to thrive in a shroud of filth
