

Morpheus Dream

Crown Of Glory

I still can remember
Drifting among the spheres of time
Everything is fading
And I am alone
I'm torn inside
Blinded by the moment
Standing before the lord of dreams
He knows me and my fears
I'll lay down my head
I close my weary eyes

In Morpheus dream
I can heal my wounds
In Morpheus dream
I can heal my soul

Watching, waiting, hoping
Hear you call out my name
Taunt me, haunt me, catch me
I'm not afraid to sleep
Chaos, anger, sadness
I'm afraid to wake up
Disguising, deception, illusion,
It's the price that I pay

A moment of meaning
I saw the truth before my eyes
I knew all the answers
Don't know what the questions are
It suffused my mind
I've heard a song of my life
That whispered in my head
A new dawn a new day
Embraces the world
And time stood still
