

everything breaks

Crown the Empire

If all I had was just one moment
Would you be leaving it all up to me
If you could freeze frame this emotion
Would you resent the way you think of me

Love ain't enough
It's leaving you
Love ain't enough
It's leaving you behind
I don't know where we go again
You want it all
Cause you gave it all
Holding on to your innocence
You want it all but I know everything breaks

Yeah
Woah
You want it all but I know everything breaks

It's all or nothing I know I'll never forget
It's all or nothing but all I feel is regret
(It's all or nothing I know I'll never forget) there is a delicate imbalance
(It's all or nothing I know I'll never forget) between your spoken and unspoken words
(It's all or nothing I know I'll never forget) I feel a protocol towards the challenge
(It's all or nothing I know I'll never forget) even if I know it's gonna hurt

(It's all or nothing I know I'll never forget) love ain't enough
(It's all or nothing I know I'll never forget) it's leaving you
(It's all or nothing I know I'll never forget) love ain't enough
(It's all or nothing I know I'll never forget)

You'll always fall behind I don't know where we go again
You want it all
Cause you gave it all
Holding on to your innocence
You want it all but I know everything breaks
Yeah
Woah
You want it all but I know everything breaks
Yeah
Woah
