

SEQU3NCE

Crown the Empire

You burn down what you don't love
You destroy what you're made of
You defy what you locked out
Terrified of what you'll find out

Reject yourself and obey
Deny your freedom
Suppress your thoughts and decay
Disrupt the SEQU3NCE

It's hard to save yourself
A revelation no one cares to find
(No one cares to find)
It's hard to save yourself
So much easier to kill

So in the whole scheme of life
There has to be the shadow
Because without the shadow
There can't be the substance

Reject yourself and obey
Deny your freedom
Suppress your thoughts and decay
Disrupt the SEQU3NCE
Disrupt the SEQU3NCE
Becoming all that you hide

It's hard to save yourself
A revelation no one cares to find
(No one cares to find)
It's hard to save yourself
So much easier, easier to kill

You censor your reality
You dance for your demons
You cling to your morality
But not for free

Reject yourself and obey
Deny your freedom
Suppress your thoughts and decay
Disrupt the SEQU3NCE
