

Someone Else

Crown the Empire

If I'm gonna spill my soul
I'll pour it out until it overflows
Drunk on lies as if I need 'em
It's all that I believe in now

And if I'm gonna spill my soul
Spiral out until I lose control
Blur the lines till I can't read 'em
Colors start to bleed in now

What I am
Where I've been
Could you tell if I was ever real?
Will you run to the edge
Or pretend like nothing matters when you feel it?
When you feel like nothing matters
Do you pretend
When you feel like someone else?

If you wanna let this go
Whisper words we shoulda never told
Passing lies that come between us
All that we believe in now

And if you wanna let this go
We can smile as if we're in control
Sometimes silence is deceiving
Quiet when you're speaking loud

What I am
Where I've been
Could you tell if I was ever real?
Will you run to the edge
Or pretend like nothing matters when you feel it?
When you feel like nothing matters
Do you pretend
When you feel like someone else?

If I'm gonna spill my soul
Spiral out until I lose control
Blur the lines till I can't read 'em
Colors start to bleed in now

Feel it
Do you feel like nothing matters?
Can we pretend
When we feel like someone else?
Can you feel it
When you feel like nothing matters?
Can we pretend
When we feel like someone else?

What I am
Where I've been
Could you tell if I was ever real?
Will you run to the edge

Or pretend like nothing matters when you feel it?
