

Rebel Against Me

Cruadalach

Open the gates for peace!
Open the gates for peace!

Step out of the crowd
Be brave enough to see how insane we are

Pointing fingers around you just rise hate against you with hate comes fear towards you with fear comes war against you

Now it's the time
To calm your mind
and realize

You are to be blamed too
If you don't feel the others
You are to be blamed too

Because

Fear builds walls
Hope builds bridges
If I were the system
You'd have to defeat me
Become
Rebel against me
Rebel against me!

Now it's the time
To calm your mind
and realize

This is my prayer for peace!
