

Stuff That Matters

Cruadalach

We oppose those who tyrannize other people without a compassion Washing away our apathy looking for mercy in imperfection

So this is stuff that matters
If you're a human being
So this is stuff that matters
Reject to control things

We stand against all judgemental whores
Who think they can give you an absolution
They want to decide who you can love
But there's no place for any rejection

I feel for you
I don't wanna change a single thing about you

Acceptance is a way to be

So this is stuff that matters
If you're a human being
So this is stuff that matters
Reject to control things

So this is stuff that matters
If you're a human being
So this is stuff that matters
Wash away all prejudice!
