

Wolves At The Gate

Cruadalach

You' re painting LSD vision of a world
So peaceful where you are the angel
You speak of compassion, instead of living it by ignoring what doesn't fit in your picture

There are wolves at the gate
And you're still deaf to their howling
There are wolves at the gate
Get ready - your walls crumble down now!

Wolves at the Gate!
Wolves at the Gate!
Living on the edge of the world of false prophets covering your neuroses with spirituality ignoring that enlightenment comes through the pain and through will to make our darkness conscious

Ignorance is blessing, which makes assholes happy!

Beware...

There are Wolves at the Gate!
