

Devil In A Chevy

Crucifix

She's got the body of an angel
But she moves it like the devil in disguise
I can see it in her eyes
Nothing ahead of her but danger
Behind her dead men lie...
But the legs of the Devil in the front of a Chevy got me hypnotized

I'm walking down a dirt road with nowhere in the world to go
Just letting my feet carry me wherever the wind may blow
Got a guitar over my shoulder, a pistol in my holster
I'm just an outlaw running
Running for wanting something but I still got nothing now
Then through the grain of the desert dust I see the gleam of a pickup truck
Heading straight in my direction like a bullet down the barrel of a 357 now
This señorita in the front seat stops dead right in front of me
Then she rolls down the window and says "Jump in cause I'm going where the wind blows."

She's got the body of an angel
But she moves it like the devil in disguise
I can see it in her eyes
Nothing ahead of her but danger
Behind her dead men lie...
But the legs of the Devil in the front of a Chevy got me hypnotized

We pull up in the barrio, gunshots ring in stereo
And as I glance in the rear view a gang of thieves step out of the shadows into clear view
Then through the rays of the setting sun I drag my fingers to a loaded gun
And as I kick open the Chevy door I grab the Devil by the hand and let the .45 blow
We make a run down the nearest street while bullets barrel through the desert breeze...
Shots ricocheting at my feet, everything about this woman goes against my instincts
But one shot not missing me is the Devil as she kisses me
She says, "I live for the action"...
I'm caught up with the Devil in a fatal attraction

She's got the body of an angel
But she moves it like the devil in disguise
I can see it in her eyes
Nothing ahead of her but danger
Behind her dead men lie...
But the legs of the Devil in the front of a Chevy got me hypnotized

We run up in a hotel
Two doors down from hell and the Devil's standing there
Looking about as fine as an angel
As she starts to caress me, slowly undress me...
I turn around and now the Devil got the gun on me
With a bullet in the head she's done and gone
One bullet in the head, she'd done and gone
Just a bullet in the head, she's done and gone because the Devil brings death until she's done and gone
With a bullet in the head I'm dead and gone
One bullet in the head and I'm dead and gone

A bullet in the head, I'm dead and gone because the Devil brings death until we're dead and gone

She's got the body of an angel
But she moves it like the devil in disguise
I can see it in her eyes
Nothing ahead of her but danger
Behind her dead men lie...
But the legs of the Devil in the front of a Chevy got me hypnotized
