

Life In Shambles

Cruel Hand

Time flies by
And you're the only thing that stays on my mind
I can't lie
Forget your face, every day I try

Life in shambles
Can we agree this is too much to handle?
Life in shambles
Over fighting this losing battle

You can try to analyze...

I won't lie to myself
It's been so long
Since I felt strong
Anger's not strength
It's a different defense
Insanity is where I'm walking the fence

You can try to magnify
The broken pieces of my life
To come up short is no surprise
