

Lock And Key

Cruel Hand

Bound by chains
Obey every word that they say to me
Not only do they hold me down
They manipulate the way I think
Sometimes they let me free
But still they hang from me
Not for the world to see

Trapped by the steal that holds me back
Caught in the chains forever locked
I'm bound they'll say is how that I was found
Free me from the pain of lock and key

I'm bound by chains so strong
So strong I can't move on
Keep me out in the pouring rain
No shelter in your shade
So cold and they made me too
Not by choice but they choose you
They'll be here when I am gone

Trapped by the steal that holds me back
Caught in the chains forever locked
I'm bound they'll say is how that I was found
Free me from the pain of lock and key

If I wait for the sun to burn off this rain
Then I'll be here for eternity
Can't look to you to break my chains
These chains are mine, for me to break

Can't wait for the sun to burn off this rain
Don't look to others to end your pain
These chains are mine, for me to break
