

Can't Stop the Heat

Cryonic Temple

6 o'clock in the morning, cannons firing so loud
Riding into the glorious battle, enemies falling one by one
Bullets in the burning sky, my brothers in arms
Will this be our final moment, or will we survive, against all odds?

This is the life I've chosen, this is my life to live
This is the life I've chosen, into reality

Can't stop the heat, riding into the glorious night
Can't stop the heat, riding into the glorious fight
Can't stop the heat
Can't stop the heat. Noooo

6 o'clock in the morning, the sky is burning red Bullets are blazing along the wind, soldiers are falling, one by one
Hail to my brothers in arms, those I hold dear
Will this be our final moment, or shall we win
One more time?

This is the life I've chosen, this is my life to live
This is the life I've chosen, into reality

Can't stop the heat, riding into the glorious night
Can't stop the heat, riding into the glorious fight
Can't stop the heat
Can't stop the heat. Noooo

Suddenly I felt the pain, felt a bullet in my chest
Fell to the ground I did
Slowly, slowly I die!

Can't stop the heat, riding into the glorious night
Can't stop the heat, riding into the glorious fight
Can't stop the heat
Can't stop the heat. Noooo
