

Man of a Thousand Faces

Cryonic Temple

Evil has many faces
Mine is the last one you'll ever see
Forces are coming closer
The time is now and here I am

War drums are beating faster
I feel my rage is out of control
Fueled by hate and anger
Redemption is to claim

He is the man of 1000 faces
Like a hero, he will rise again

Nothing to live or die for Freedom is calling out his name
Watching the fires light up the sky
Who live and who will die

He is the man of 1000 faces
Like a hero, he will rise again

Listen to me and you will see
He is the glory majesty
Fighting demons in an unknown world
Surrender or die cause I am here
I am there and everywhere
Through my faces I will conquer all

Far away from the earth
Our base has been breached
The final frontier
Has awoken the horror
Trapped in claustrophobic tunnels
Feel their acid breath in my neck
They are chasing me
I reload, aim, and fire

He is the man of 1000 faces
Like a hero, he will rise again

Listen to me and you will see
He is the glory majesty
Fighting demons in an unknown world
Surrender or die cause I am here
I am there and everywhere
Through my faces I will conquer all
