

Almost empty, running on fumes
Barely alive
About to go on trial
Nothing's sacred, with everything exposed
A needle to the eye
Now it's time to say goodbye
With everything exposed

You've been living life on a lie
All your life (All your life)
In the shades of a pale blue light

You
You better look alive
Cause your older wings won't fly (Spiral again, you have to pretend,
hey)
You'd better look alive
With your heart in overdrive (Spiral again, wipe the whole grid)

Walk on water, heal the wounds
Ease the pain
Now release me from these chains
And help me ease the pain

You've been living life on a lie
All your life (All your life)
In the shades of a pale blue light

You
You better look alive
Cause your older wings won't fly (Spiral again, you have to pretend,
hey)
You'd better look alive
With your heart in overdrive (Spiral again, wipe the whole grid)

You see, nothing here is real
But that's part of the deal
Nothing to reveal
It's only time they steal
Nothing's what it seems
When you go inside a dream

You
You better look alive
Cause your older wings won't fly (Spiral again, you have to pretend,
hey)
You'd better look alive
With your heart in overdrive (Spiral again, wipe the whole grid)
