

Murky

Cryoshell

Travel through a swamp of lies
It's no surprise
We're caught up in misty visions
Fear
Blurs your mind
The truth is hard to find
Did we choose the right side?
Did we pick the right fight?

There are traitors and heroes
Beggars who won't belong in this world
They believe in the same truth
Believe in eternal sun
Forever more

Alone, we are not complete
Left for defeat
In need of a place to turn to
It's time
We settle the score
And ask for more
Ask for a new beginning
Now is when you start winning

There are traitors and heroes
Beggars who won't belong in this world
They believe in the same truth
Believe in eternal sun
Forever more
When you're drowning in shadows
Look for the light in your heart
And you'll see
That courage is easy
Now that you're not alone
Forever more

Forever more
Forever, forever
Forever more
Forever, forever more
Forever, forever more
Forever more
