

No More Words

Cryoshell

You are a poisoner of minds
A speaker deep inside my mind
I find me waking up at night
Trying to find
What you are doing in my mind

You are the shadow that I fear
'Cause you are always very near
You're returning with the rain
And it's raining again
And I embrace it as a friend

It's not why
It's not how
I could grab this raincoat and ask you out
But I try not to float with you
And walk in blind
Won't give in to myself
One more time
It's this stupid fight
That's keeping me alive

You are the shadow that I fear
'Cause you are always very near
You're returning with the rain
And it's raining on me, again
And I embrace it as a friend

Don't say anything
'Cause what you say
Pushes me to the edge, I'm falling
Down, no more words
Stop now, stop now
So I won't fall apart again

It's not why
It's not how
I could grab this raincoat and ask you out
But I try not to float with you
And walk in blind
Won't give in to myself
One more time
It's this stupid fight
That's keeping me alive
