

Dark Clouds

Crypta

Chills down my spine
Can you sense the storm coming?
Chills down my spine
I can't stop the storm coming

The invisible enemy is creeping in Darkness steadily surrounding me
Impending doom drawing near and near
Powerless before this cycle of suffering

Claustrophobic - walls closing in
Weight on my chest - the air feels thin
Distress - numb hands paralyzing
Trapped in my mind, agonizing

Dark clouds
Follow every move
Catastrophic storm that never pours
Dark clouds
Am I losing control?
Am I going insane or my time has come?

I'd rather die if life is living like this
Jailed in this cocoon of anxiety and fear
Life drained out of me every time I shed a tear
Begging the day ends so the black cloud disappears

Claustrophobic - walls closing in
Weight on my chest - the air feels thin
Distress - numb hands paralyzing
Trapped in my mind, agonizing

Dark clouds
Follow every move
Catastrophic storm that never pours
Dark clouds
Am I losing control?
Am I going insane or my time has come?

Will I survive today?
Will I ever thrive again?

Will the storm ever dissipate?
Will I survive today?

Dark clouds
Follow every move
Catastrophic storm that never pours
Dark clouds
I am losing control
I am going insane and my time has come
