

From The Ashes

Crypta

The time has come to depart
And from the scene remove her heart
With a cycle closure that's near
Comes self-sacrifice freed from fear

From the dust, be reborn
From the dust, gloriously ascend
From the dust, a rebirth
From the dust, fuel to emerge again

Burst into flames, now

Rise! Rise! Rise!
From the ashes
Rise! Rise! Rise!
From the ashes

Immortality dwells on her wings
A dying breath as she sings
The end's bitter taste pervades her deepest
Consumed by blaze, she begins a renewal quest

From the dust, be reborn
From the dust, gloriously ascend
From the dust, a rebirth
From the dust, fuel to emerge again

Burst into flames, now

Rise! Rise! Rise!
From the ashes
Rise! Rise! Rise!
From the ashes

The end is only the beginning!

From the dust, be reborn
From the dust, gloriously ascend
From the dust, a rebirth
From the dust, fuel to emerge again

Rise! Rise! Rise!
From the ashes
Rise! Rise! Rise!
From the ashes
