

Under The Black Wings

Crypta

The sky turns red
The city is covered in darkness
Cavernous trumpets harbinger
That doomsday is here

Dark winged beasts
Demonic creatures
Skeletal abominations
Creeping in from above

Eternal punishment
Under the black wings
Hopelessness
Under the black wings

The unholy ones now march
Lacerating, spitting fire
Their claws ripping flesh
As their hideous sovereign descends

Will I escape the Black wings?
Will I escape the Black wings?

Will I escape the
Black wings?
Will I escape the
Black wings?

I shiver in fear
Tormented by all the screams
I look through the window
They're coming for me!

Dark winged beasts
Demonic creatures
Skeletal abominations
Creeping in from above

Eternal punishment
Under the black wings
Hopelessness
Under the black wings

Under the black wings
Under the black wings
