

Wake up in the morning, just to check the news
Wonder will we ever know which road to choose
Not one day without them, strange reality
Facing helpless anger, so long liberty

Welcome our God, leave madness behind
For he will be taking us home

Oh Crystallizer
Oh Crystallizer, come and bring your light
Oh Crystallizer
Oh Crystallizer, our moon in darkest night

Waiting for a saviour, don't know where to go
Just before I break down, all I seem to know
Chaos and confusion, darkness all the way
He will come to take me, hero of the day

Riding, flying, wings of destiny
Fighting, lightning, shining endlessly
Rising, praising, chance and remedy
We are heading to Infinity

Oh Crystallizer
