

Eternal Flame

Crystal Ball

Another empty feeling
I just can't believe
That I miss your warmth
Thought you never leave

You filled my world with passion and it felt so fine
I never forget those moments that you once were mine

Gotta stop this sad and endless pain
Let the sunshine come into my life again
Gotta stop this hard and senseless rain
By lighting up a bright eternal flame

I'm standing at the edge of nowhere
I don't know where to turn
I know I got all before me
There's so much left to learn

Gotta stop this sad and endless pain
Let the sunshine come into my life again
Gotta stop this hard and senseless rain
By lighting up a bright eternal flame

Wish you were here to help me through
I need your helping hand
Standing here and losing ground
Like shifting sand

Gotta stop this sad and endless pain
Let the sunshine come into my life again
Gotta stop this hard and senseless rain
By lighting up a bright eternal flame
