

Gentleman's Agreement

Crystal Ball

You're on the prowl again
And you don't miss a day, no
You're hunting high and low
You are so hungry a beast of prey

You found your chosen one
And now you eat your heart out
You strive to eat the sweets
And to enjoy the forbidden fruit

You want it, demand it
A passion that you can't resist
You need it, reveal it
Another trophy on your list

Stop, so refrain yourself
It is a nobleman's achievement
Hey, keep it in your mind
Respect the gentleman's agreement

You hurt her tender heart
You hurt her soul thereafter
You're moving on and on
But there's no way you are passing through

You crave the sacred one
But she's your best friend's lover
Keep up sincerity
Retain respect for the other one

You want it, demand it
A passion that you can't resist
You need it, reveal it
Another trophy on your list

Stop, so refrain yourself
It is a nobleman's achievement
Hey, keep it in your mind
Respect the gentleman's agreement

Stop, so refrain yourself
It is a nobleman's achievement
Hey, keep it in your mind
Respect the gentleman's agreement
