She'll never see the light of day She'll never join the easy way Her life is a lie Can you tell me why?

I never knew her real name
I never understood her game
She's a loner at night
Her eyes are red and veiled

You need pleasure and pain There's no one to blame Oh my baby You feel no shame Whilst playing your game With a burning flame

Twilight zone
She's dying all alone
Twilight zone
She's busted on the ground

You were a prisoner of lies You never tried to compromise There's nowhere to hide No one by your side

Twilight zone
Still looking for a home
Twilight zone
Is all she; s never known
