

Battlefield

Crystal Eyes

Now I stand here alone watching over shadows on this field of death
I slowly raise my head

I can't escape or deny the pain I carry inside
But I will rise again before the night descends

Armed to prevail and eager to slay
I can't rest until I get my revenge

Raise your banners
Raise your banners high
Into battle - Into war we'll ride

Rumbling under the sky
the brave are waiting to fight
Laughing at your gods
I'll crush your filthy hearts

Let the wind of war whine as the chaos arise
What will be, will be
This is my destiny

You'll taste my blade in one final breath
I can't rest until you're wiped off this earth

Warriors! Sight your preys
Victory lies ahead
Warriors! Sight your preys
Victory lies ahead

Raise your banners
Raise your sword and shield
Die with honour on the battlefield
