

In The Empire Of Saints

Crystal Eyes

I've lost a friend, I've lost a part of me
The very end is now reality

Pre Chorus

It's time to say goodbye
It's time to turn the page
I'll keep your memory in this song
Until we meet again

Chorus

You're a hero of the heart. Forever young
You're a fighter bound to make your way to the stars
Now you've left us all behind to find your dream inside
The Empire of Saints where you'll fly forever more

We shared to love for songs and melodies
We float above gray clouds of misery

Pre Chorus

Somehow we fell apart
Somehow the story changed
But I'll keep your memory in this song
Until we meet again

Chorus

Solo Dahl

Bridge

You won't be forgotten
You won't be a broken dream
Your voice are immortal
I still hear you: Shout it out for me!

Chorus
