

If You Ever Change Your Mind

Crystal Gayle

Sure I understand
Of course I'll be fine
You had to change your plans
Oh well, I'll just change mine

But if it turns out bad
And if your nights get long
And if she makes you sad
No need to be strong

And if you ever change your mind
And find you miss these feelings that you left behind
We could give it one more try
Some magic place and time
If you ever change your mind

I guess I'd better go
You know I hate goodbyes
Let's not drag this out, babe
I'll see you 'round some time

And if you ever change your mind
And find you miss these feelings that you left behind
We could give it one more try
Some magic place and time
If you ever change your mind

Oh, don't look back
Let the heartaches pass

And if you ever change your mind
And find you miss those feelings that you left behind
We could give it one more try
Some magic place and time
If you ever change your mind
