

Sneakin' Out the Back Door

Crystal Gayle

I heard voices in the kitchen late last night
Then I saw your sneaking shadow underneath the back porch light
Well you've snuck out on me one to many times
So now I'm sneaking out the back door of your life

You've been a-running a-stepping on my pride
Sneaking out the back door every night
So now I'm sneaking out the back door of your life

I've had enough of what you do when I'm not looking
I didn't mind a time or two but now you've finally done me in
Well you've snuck out on me one to many times
So now I'm sneaking out the back door of your life

You've been a-running a-stepping on my pride
Sneaking out the back door every night
So now I'm sneaking out the back door of your life

So now I'm sneaking out the back door of your life
So now I'm sneaking out the back door of your life
