

Whenever It Comes to You

Crystal Gayle

I've done some things I should forget
Mistakes I have made a few
But darling I don't have one regret
Whenever it comes to you

I've never been the prayin' kind
But lately that's all I do
I always love and there's the rub
Whenever it comes to you

Sometimes it feels nothin' stays the same
There are some things that will never change

Rain must fall and birds must fly
This much I know is true
And I'll always be a fool at heart
Whenever it comes to you

And I'll always be a fool at heart
Whenever it comes to you
