

THE LIGHT

Crystal Kay

The light is streaming down
The world is beginning now
Gonna run run run following the sun
Gonna run run run till tomorrow comes

Getting bright
Getting close
Feeling light
Feeling like the sky is getting wider

I run, faster now
It's in my sight, going right, let's go
I run reaching forward
Feeling like the light is getting brighter

I run, faster now
It's in my sight, going right, let's go
I run reaching forward
Feeling like the light is getting brighter

I'm feeling the light
Shine around me
I'm feeling alive
I think I found my meaning

(Kesshite mayowa nai (mō mayowa nai)

I run reaching forward
Feeling like the light is getting brighter

I run, faster now
I feel alive, feeling light, let's go

Always reaching forward
I feel it lift me up and take me higher

I run, faster now
It's in my sight, going right, let's go
I run reaching forward
Feeling like the light is getting brighter

I'm feeling the light
Shine around me
I'm feeling alive
I think I found my meaning

Gonna run run run following the sun
I'm feeling the light
Gonna run run run till tomorrow comes
I'm feeling alive
