

Coma Wave

Crystal Lake

Tell me all your lines
I know exactly how this goes
'Cause I'm beating down the door
While it all goes up your nose

You're on another level, off in outer space
You're tearing out your hair 'cause your head just can't escape
You calm down on the outside, you let the monster in
Maybe we're alone, it's time to scratch the itch
Mmm, it's time to scratch the itch
Mmm

Don't tell me I'm selfish, it's not enough
The Devil's inside me, calling my bluff
The sun never rises, but darkness never comes
I hear the river, feel the rush

Coma wave
Coma wave

I'm beating down the door, next I'm slamming on your chest
Lightning strikes twice, it's time to scratch the itch
Kiss karma on her lips
But I can't feel you at all
Tonight, we sleep forever, together in the hole

Coma wave
Coma wave
Coma wave
Coma wave

Coma wave
Coma wave
