

Freewill

Crystal Lake

Ways of thinking
Reality is nothing
But I'm not blind
Your heart's same as your eyes
Freewill
Suffering is nothing
I don't feel pain
I can do everything
Freewill

My life is going on and will die
But it's an illusion
Your heart will never die
You keep
Living your lie
You leave now
Bring out
You see this world through your eyes
You feel this sense in your eyes
You see this world through your eyes
You feel this sense in your eyes
Freewill
Freewill

(Open your eyes)
(What do you see?)
(Close your eyes)
(How do you feel?)

We are free
Go!

Your heart is still alive
You should keep your freewill
I have no start and no end
It just happened through your eyes

I have no start and no end
It just happened through your eyes
Your heart is still alive
You should keep, keep your freewill

Lie
This world

I have no start and no end
It just happened through your eyes
Your heart is still alive
You should keep, keep your freewill
