

The Burden

Crystal Lake

People can't select the place of their nativity
The weak look for the adversary and envy
The media projects counterfeits
And the authority pities
As they idly look at it

The downfall
The crisis approaches, yeah

People discharges itself into carnage
One sided consumption won't terminate
Immersing in lust
Only lust for power prevails
The underdogs crawl on the ground
The forged lies soar
In the sky
In the sky
Calmly observing and ignoring
Is a betrayal to the set
To the set

The chain of rebellion
Breeds the dismay
The reckless steps need to be stopped
People's revolution
Eases the pain slowly
The decayed system is starting to change
The grace of the people
Will slash heaven and earth
For the disappearance of society distinction
And the violated
Human rights

But still the earth
Distorted by agony
Will continue screaming
Is there hope
For the burden of the human race

Create the chain of faith
That will transcend
Culture and modern thoughts
Share the privilege of welfare
Again today
The sun will rise
And new blood
Will be born

Again today
The sun will rise
And new blood
Will be born
Again today
The sun will rise
And new blood
Will be born

Light of hope is reviving
This is a sacred war
Light of hope is reviving
This is a sacred war
Light of hope is reviving
This is a sacred war
Light of hope is reviving
This is a sacred war
Light of hope is reviving
This is a sacred war
Light of hope is reviving
This is a sacred war
Light of hope is reviving
This is a sacred war
Light of hope is reviving
This is a sacred war
Light of hope is reviving
This is a sacred war
Light of hope is reviving
This is a sacred war
