

Just Sing

Crystal Lewis

i've heard people talk about happy endings how those who have them are only pretending now i've seen with my own eyes the impossible come to life and i'm passing on advice given to me close your eyes open your mouth
let it out

(just sing) when your heart is broken (sing) when your smile is gone (sing) when your breath gives out and you feel you can't go on (just sing) oh your trouble is (sing) only momentary and (sing) I know sun comes after the storm
just sing

when words fail to convey what your heart longs to say when you're at a loss for the means to communicate raise your voice, lift your hands sing a song, do a dance let your praise pave the way to freedom don't let despair keep you from surrendering to this supernatural song even when you feel defeated know that God's right there there to help you along
