

Blue Train

Crystal Shawanda

Vanish in the darkness down the devil's dirty road
Redemption in the silence of the last breath in the cold
Death, it comes-a creepin' like a darkest witch's spell
A Johnson at the crossroads with hellhounds on his trail

And they're lost on that highway, no, they're gone, gone, gone
No they're lost on that highway, oh, they're gone, gone, gone

Blue train, they're ridin'
Blue train, they're ridin'
Blue train, they're ridin'
Here they come, Lord, Lord
Blue train, they're ridin'
Blue train, they're ridin'
Blue train, they're ridin'
Here they come, Lord, Lord

From the cold Northern backroads to the warm Delta mud
Evil has no conscience when it comes lookin' for blood
Angels come to help 'em and ease 'em with the pain
Let me shine a light to God along that long blue train

And they're lost on that highway, no, they're gone, gone, gone
They're lost on that highway, Lord, they're gone, gone, gone
Blue train, they're ridin'
Blue train, they're ridin'
Blue train, (blue train!) they're ridin'
Here they come, Lord, Lord
Blue train, they're ridin'
Blue train, they're ridin'
Blue train, they're ridin'
Here they come, Lord, Lord
And they're lost on that highway, no, they're gone, gone, gone
They're lost on that highway, Lord, they're gone, gone, gone
Oh, they're gone
Blue train, oh, blue train (blue train!)
They're gone! (Blue train! They ridin')
They're gone (Blue train, they ridin')
(Blue train, they ridin')
(Blue train, they ridin')
(Blue train, they ridin')
(Blue train, they ridin')
