

Love Enough

Crystal Shawanda

Baby, I've try.
Did everything I could.
Everything I should.
Don't know what else to say.
What else to do.
To say goodbye to you

Ain't got love.... Enough....
For the both of us....
'So whats the use.
I've got the faith...
I've got the will..
But I can't make you feel,
what you dont feel.
I ain't got love enough,
'For the both of us.

There was a time.
Or it was our dreaming ground.
And we worn't slowing down.

There was when you need me in your touch.
Warm me in your eyes.
Now you don't even try.

Ain't got love.... Enough....
For the both of us....
'So whats the use.
I've got the faith...
I've got the will..
But I can't make you feel,
what you dont feel.
I ain't got love enough,
'For the both of us.

I've got the faith...
I've got the will...
But I can't make you feel,
what you dont feel.

I ain't got, no more time to kill.
I ain't got love enough,
'For the both of us.

Baby, I've try.
I Did everything I could.
Everything I should.....
