

The Calling

Crystal Viper

The abyss that I'm in
Is always full of liquids out of this world, alien-hued
I cannot comprehend where am I now
Is it her dream, or does she control mine?

Her servants are watching me, I know I'm not alone
They're nursed on the witches' blood, I'm scared to the bone
They move in bizarre way, sneak out like a ghost
They come through dreams, and they want to rule our world

Hear my calling!
Pass through dimensional gates
Hear my calling!
Realms beyond time and space
Hear my calling!
Chilling air and glooming lights
Hear my calling!
Now, surrender! Don't wake up

I lost a fight with myself to stay awake
Everything is illogical and dread
Lost in the abyss of my fever dreams
Controlled by a hag, and her grimmy breeds

Her servants are watching me, I know I'm not alone
They're nursed on the witches' blood, I'm scared to the bone
They move in bizarre way, sneak out like a ghost
They come through dreams, and they want to rule our world

Hear my calling!
Pass through dimensional gates
Hear my calling!
Realms beyond time and space
Hear my calling!
Chilling air and glooming lights
Hear my calling!
Now, surrender! Don't wake up
