

Whispers From Beyond

Crystal Viper

They're among us, the cunning spies
They are watching us all the time
Stay away from the misty hills
No matter what you'll see and what you'll hear

They can turn every human mad
They can easily conquer the Earth
If they'd knew I suspect too much
They'd took me off the Earth, where they come from
Legends haven't lied

Shine on - let me see the army of shadows
Shine on - when the night will come
Shine on - we have lost the runs carved in the black stone
Shine on - evidence is gone

Whose are the voices outside my door?
I hear creaking of the wooden floor
How can I even speculate, when I am not sure if I am awake?

Is this noise only in my head?
Can I go, or is it too late?
Are your whispers a mad man's lies?
Is that true that they will open for us gulfs of space and time

Shine on - let me see the army of shadows
Shine on - when the night will come
Shine on - we have lost the runs carved in the black stone
Shine on - evidence is gone

They can turn every human mad
They can easily conquer the Earth
If they'd knew I suspect too much
They'd took me off the Earth, where they come from
Legends haven't lied

Shine on - let me see the army of shadows
Shine on - when the night will come
Shine on - we have lost the runs carved in the black stone
Shine on - evidence is gone
