

A Phony in a World of Holden Caulfields

Crywank

Sometimes I'm the moralist
Sometimes I'm the apologist
Sometimes I just can't resist Egg on my face, egg on my face

Is this here what I believe Or how I want to be perceived My politics may seem naive
Because they're better than me

And so I think of the anarchist who knows just what to say but their actions give way to different things And objectivist, a difficult tryst, a good way I think to hate yourself more everyday

People their actions concede so often to be against their own b eliefs
Yeah I wish, I wish I was pure, a perfect example but I will al ways be the hypocrite
I be not worthy to hold a candle

Holden Caulfield is so cool, lol
