

Doubt

Crywank

Well I'm well aware of what isn't there
Do you have a choice? Not yet found a voice to answer that with Well if I could identify with anything it would be doubt
Let's give a name to my everything, let's call it doubt

Any other name I accept it will soon feel like performance
Only the doubt is enormous

I doubt by any other name I doubt
I doubt the words spilling out my mouth
I doubt I care, I doubt I don't care, I doubt

And now I don't think I'll reach a point where the questions end
There's always another, but sometimes we pretend that we have the answers
Yeah we're just a bunch of chancers

I am doubtful
I am doubtful
I am doubt
I am doubtful
I am doubtful
I am doubt
