

I'm a Cliché

Crywank

Haven't you heard this one before?
Some person being sad over three fucking chords
I can't believe this, it's like I didn't try
Repeating synonyms of sadness that have been used too many times

I'm a cliché, I'm a boring cliché
I'm a cliché, I'm a stupid cliché
I'm a cliché, I'm a boring cliché
I'm not special

Recycle the subjects until everything sounds the same
Every heartbreak was shitty, everyone's hometown is lame
Act like my emotions are worth writing songs about
It won't make you any better, putting words over sounds

I'm a cliché, I'm a boring cliché
I'm a cliché, I'm a stupid cliché
I'm a cliché, I'm a boring cliché
I'm not special
