

Can you move on?
Can you wait for this to change?
Try to hold on
But your body starts to fade
I see it in your smile
You've slowly come undone
You're floating towards the sky
Evaporating
Oh god, your eyes
They're shining like the sun
Above the hills of Akureyri
Take me above the clouds and
Show me things that I have felt in dreams,
But never seen before
Can you move on?
Can you wait for this to change?
Try to hold on
But your body starts to fade
I see it in your smile
You've slowly come undone
You're floating towards the sky
Evaporating
Oh god, your eyes
They're shining like the sun
Take me above the clouds and
Show me things that I have felt in dreams,
But never seen before
