

Peel back your skin
And come in close
Lace your ribs into my spine
I'll dissolve into your soul
Our bones fusing in the light

Sing me sweetly songs of hope
Tell me things I can't deny
I'm your shadow
I'm your ghost
Prepare your soul
This is the night

I know we're the lucky ones, you say
You've never known another love 'til me
What's become something greater than we've seen
Let's forsake our bodies and
Be free

Run your fingers through my hair
Whisper softly in my ear
My arms are trembling
I'm so scared
'Cause its not the same without you here
