

as deep as time allows

Crywolf

But you're everything to me
You deepen the red of my blood

I'll freeze you in space
A pretty, broken thing
Sobbing at the foot of my bed
Dark like rain
Unstoppable as time moves on Deep and long

I will find your strings and pluck them gently
I know you're with me
I promised you I'd never let you cry alone
And I won't
I won't

But you're everything to me
You deepen the red of my blood
