Crywolf

I was
The one you left behind here
The soggy road you travelled
Was deeper than my sorrows
Stay here
Take off your clothes and disappear
Deep inside the waters
We can be each other

And in that bed
Your cheeks were flushed a violent red
I could feel my lungs inhaling you

I respirate, I respirate (I respirate, I respirate)
I respirate, I respirate (I respirate, I respirate)
I respirate, I respirate (I respirate, I respirate)
I respirate you

I was
The one you left behind here
The soggy road you travelled
Was deeper than my sorrows
Stay here
Take off your clothes and disappear
Deep inside the waters
We can be each other

And in these woods
I'm unchaining all I should
I can feel my lungs exhaling you

I respirate, I respirate, I respirate, I respirate
I respirate, I respirate, I respirate, I respirate
I respirate, I respirate, I respirate, I respirate
I respirate you
I respirate, I respirate, I respirate, I respirate
I respirate, I respirate, I respirate, I respirate
I respirate, I respirate, I respirate, I respirate
I respirate you
I respirate, I respirate, I respirate, I respirate
I respirate, I respirate, I respirate, I respirate
I respirate, I respirate, I respirate, I respirate
I respirate
