

Effervescent

Crywolf

Your arms wide, I could see you
Beneath the lights, I could feel you
Warm and dark inside my longing eyes
I was alive underneath you
You made me smile and return to
The darkness of my wandering light

And I know that you feel unknown
Oh, maybe you're right
Secretively wonderful
Brightness in your eyes
Never coming out at all
Effervescent night
Laying buried in the cold
Let me come inside
