

[i see the birth and death of the universe swimming around in your eyes]

Crywolf

I feel myself unraveling
Suspended and strange
Listen, no matter what you see here
No matter what erupts from my depths
No matter what ruin comes of us
When I'm gone, promise me
Promise me when you sleep
When you dream of me
It will be in colors of white
