

Quantum Immortality

Crywolf

On the lips of my love, I'm alone again
On the lips of my love, I'm alone again

On the lips of my love, I'm alone again
Betray me with your kiss
I could lose, I could fall, I could fold and then
Come right back to this

You've got your arms wide
And sin in your eyes

I'm a thief, I'm a coward, I'm a fool, it hurts
Thinking this was real
When I lose, when I fall, clutchin' out to her
Everything I feel

You've got my hands tied
Innocent sacrifice

I feel I'm goin' under
'Cause my heart is bleeding colors
Only for you
Only for you

And I feel I'm goin' under
'Cause my heart is bleeding colors
Only for you
Only for you

On the lips of my love, I'm alone again
Betray me with your kiss
I could lose, I could fall, I could fold and then
Come right back to this

You've got your arms wide
And sin in your eyes

On the lips of my love, I'm alone again
Bleed slow, I can taste where your love has been Hold your heart in my teeth, I could break the skin
Pull me close, you can feel where my love begins

You've got your own price
It's in your bloodline

And I feel I'm sinking deeper
'Cause you're clutching both my feet, dear
And my eyes are wide as water invades my lungs

And I feel I'm goin' under
'Cause my heart is bleeding colors
Only for you
Only for you

And I feel I'm goin' under
'Cause you smile like you're my savior
While your hands keep getting tighter around my throat

And in the dark I find you
Lost in caverns of my head
In quantum haze
Eternally beneath my skin

Beneath my skin
Beneath my skin
Beneath my skin
Beneath my skin
Beneath my skin

Beneath my skin, beneath my skin
Beneath my skin, beneath my skin
Beneath my skin, beneath my skin
Beneath my skin, beneath my skin
Beneath my skin, beneath my skin
Beneath my skin, beneath my skin
Beneath my skin, beneath my skin
