

Don't speak now
In the silence, I can see you for the first time
I'm here, love, unspoken
I am broken with you

Don't speak now
In the silence, I can see you for the first time
I'm here, love, unspoken
I am broken with you

Hiding from the father, son, and these ghosts, tonight
I'm here and I'm afraid
You never told me you were hiding from yourself, inside
You were the devil

Hiding from the father, son, and these ghosts, tonight
I'm here and I'm afraid
You never told me you were hiding from yourself, inside
You were the devil

Hiding from the father, hiding from the father
Hiding from the father, you were the devil
You never told me you were hiding from yourself, inside
You were the devil

Don't speak now
In the silence, I can see you for the first time
I'm here, love, unspoken
I am broken with you

Hiding from the father, hiding from the father
Hiding from the father, you were the devil
Hiding from the father, hiding from the father
Hiding from the father, hiding from the father

You never told me you were hiding from yourself, inside
You never told me you were hiding from yourself, inside
You never told me you were hiding from yourself, inside
You never told me you were hiding from yourself, inside
