

you; biochromatic light

Crywolf

Don't you see her heart?
Coming out to meet you
Don't you feel her heart?
Pouring from the ground
Can't you feel her heart?
Bleeding on your carpet
Don't you see her heart

Blossoming and

Never-ending
Ever-rising
Angel-eyed and
Rosy, crying
Ever singing
Cutting through your night

Never-ending
Ever-rising
Angel-eyed and
Rosy, crying
Ever singing
Cutting through your night

Come and let your bloody heart explode inside me
Scream your lungs out, purify me
Shatter me with blinding shards of light

Blood and feathers
Spread your softbloom breast
And let me crawl inside you
Water me with shimmering tears of life
